AAOM/APJM Paper Development Workshop

Kitakyushu Convention Center, Kitakyushu City, Fukuoka, Japan
19th June 2017

The Asia Academy of Management (AAOM), in cooperation with the Asia Pacific Journal of Management (APJM), is pleased to announce a paper development workshop (PDW) on Monday, 19th June 2017 (the day of opening reception of the Biennial conference). The PDW will be held at the Kitakyushu Convention Center, Kitakyushu City, Fukuoka, Japan.

The purpose of the PDW is to provide developmental feedback to junior scholars and doctoral students on research projects that are in relatively advanced stages of development. Consistent with the mission of the Asia Academy of Management, our objective is to encourage scholars to do quality research on issues that are of particular relevance to Asia. While we certainly hope that the authors will develop their work and submit the resulting papers to APJM, participation in the PDW does not create an obligation to do so.

The workshop will be led by Jesper Edman (Hitotsubashi University) and Elizabeth Rose (University of Otago), with participants receiving personal feedback from top scholars, including Cuili Qian (City University of Hong Kong), Hitoshi Mitsuhashi (Keio University), Tailan Chi (University of Kansas) and Christina Ahmadjian (Hitotsubashi University). The workshop also plans to feature a meet-the-editors session with Jane Lu, Editor-in-Chief of Asian Pacific Journal of Management, and Alain Verbeke, Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of International Business Studies.

Submission Instructions:

We encourage authors to submit their original work under two categories: full-length papers (maximum of 8,000 words) and idea papers (maximum of 2,000 words). Papers that have previously been submitted to APJM or other journals are welcome for the PDW. We can accommodate up to 20 papers for this event.

Please send submissions to jesper.edman@r.hit-u.ac.jp and elizabeth.rose@otago.ac.nz by Monday, 6th March 2017. Please note that PDW participants will need to register for the conference. Registration information and other details can be found on the AAOM website (<http://aaom.asia/index.php/conference-2017>).
