

10th Asia Academy of Management Conference
10th Taiwan Academy of Management Conference

Doctoral Consortium
June 20, 2017
Kitakyushu Convention Center

The Asia Academy of Management (AAoM) Doctoral Consortium provides an opportunity for doctoral students to meet and interact with a panel of excellent researchers on Asian management issues on June 20th, 2017. The consortium will be held at Kitakyushu Convention Center. A panel of experts will participate in the workshop, including Kazuhiro Asakawa, Jesper Edman, Jay Kim, Jane Lu, Ishtiaq P. Mahmood, Mike Peng, and Jaeyong Song (in alphabetical order).

In this half-day consortium, about 30 young scholars will be invited to participate. Applicants who are selected will not be charged a fee for the consortium but should register for the Asia Academy of Management conference (June 20-21, 2017).

Doctoral students interested in participating in the consortium should submit a PDF file consisting of:

1. A one-page introductory letter in which you indicate what you wish to obtain from the consortium and what you will be bringing to the consortium.
2. The applicant's one-page CV that includes full contact information.
3. The applicant's two-page summary of their (a) dissertation progress up-to-date OR (b) a working paper based on an ongoing project. The summary should include the following content: research purpose; research design/methodology/approach; (anticipated) findings; research limitations/implications (if applicable); practical implications (if applicable); originality/value; paper type (general review, research paper, technical paper; conceptual paper; viewpoint). You can also include in the final paragraph any areas you would especially like feedback on.

Applicants should send the PDF files via email to Kazuhiro Asakawa by February 28th, 2017. Your file should be named name.pdf, where name is your full name.
